

Descendants of Jeremiah (Darby) Moloney and Kate Kenny

Generation No. 1

1. JEREMIAH (DARBY)¹ MOLONEY was born Abt. 1820 in Ireland, and died Unknown. He married KATE KENNY Abt. 1840 in Co. Limerick, Ireland. She was born Abt. 1820 in Ireland, and died Unknown.

Child of JEREMIAH MOLONEY and KATE KENNY is:

2. i. PATRICK² MOLONEY, b. Abt. October 21, 1843, ?? Rockhill & Bruree, Co. Limerick, Ireland; d. November 21, 1919, Ballinacorty, Glenroe, Co. Limerick, Ireland.

Generation No. 2

2. PATRICK² MOLONEY (*JEREMIAH (DARBY)*¹) was born Abt. October 21, 1843 in ?? Rockhill & Bruree, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹, and died November 21, 1919 in Ballinacorty, Glenroe, Co. Limerick, Ireland². He married MARY NUGENT February 25, 1868 in Glenroe, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland³. She was born Abt. 1858 in Ireland³, and died October 29, 1935 in Ballinacorty, Glenroe, Co. Limerick, Ireland⁴.

Notes for PATRICK MOLONEY:

While we cannot be certain that this is the correct Patrick, he is the only one born to a Jeremiah in the vicinity. He listed Darby (Jeremiah) Moloney as his father on his marriage certificate. It might be supposed that he came from Glenroe. However, the records at Glenroe church do not begin until 1853.

Patrick was baptized on 21 October 1843. Sponsors were James Kenny and Maria O'Brien.

At the time of his son David's wedding to Mary Treacy, Patrick's occupation was listed as a labourer.

- viii. HELEN (NELLIE) MOLONEY, b. March 09, 1883⁵; d. Unknown; m. MALONE⁶; d. Unknown.

Notes for HELEN (NELLIE) MOLONEY:

Jenny Moloney Franklin recalls a visit to Ireland in 1941. "I went with my brother Will to visit Aunt Nell (Helen Moloney) who was a stately old lady. She said I looked like Aunt Moll (her sister) and I had red hair like her. Pat and John (Jane's sons) were redheads, too, and she was very taken with them. Aunt Moll was dead at this time and her husband, Tim Curtin, I never met."

Generation No. 3

3. JEREMIAH³ MOLONEY (*PATRICK*², *JEREMIAH (DARBY)*¹)⁷ was born Abt. December 20, 1868 in Glenroe, Co. Limerick, Ireland⁸, and died Unknown. He married MARY O'CONNELL. She was born Abt. 1884, and died March 02, 1978⁹.

 - iv. KATHLEEN (KITTY) MOLONEY, b. 1913, Ballinanima, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland; d. January 27, 2000, Carrigaline, Co. Cork, Ireland.

Notes for KATHLEEN (KITTY) MOLONEY:

Kitty worked in England for many years, beginning in 1932. For the last 18 years of her life, Kitty lived with the family of Frank and Una Fenton and was nanny to their two children. She worked with them in England and then moved to Ireland when they decided to relocate to Carrigaline, Co. Cork.

Kitty also worked for in England for 20 years for a man named Tim Cleary. He said she was a beautiful woman and broke many a man's heart.

Kitty maintained an apartment in England up to the time of her death and regularly traveled over, staying for a month or two at a time.

At the Moloney Reunion on 15 October 1999, Kitty recalled waving goodbye to Tom Maloney as he walked down the road on his way to America, in 1928.

4. DAVID³ MOLONEY (*PATRICK*², *JEREMIAH (DARBY)*¹) was born March 23, 1870 in Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹², and died January 16, 1919 in Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹³. He married MARY TREACY January 26, 1898 in Bulgaden, Kilmallock, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹⁴. She was born February 01, 1875 in Knocklong, Kilmallock, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹⁵, and died March 31, 1964 in Ballinanima, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹⁶.

Notes for DAVID MOLONEY:

At the time of his wedding to Mary Treacy, David was listed as a labourer living in Ballinanima.

After a 10-day illness, he died of pneumonia in the flu epidemic of 1919. David Moloney is buried in the old cemetery in Darragh, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, according to his daughter Nonie.

Notes for MARY TREACY:

Mary's baptismal sponsors were David Condon and Nora Treacy.

Mary walked to Mass every day from Ballinanima to Kilfinane, a distance of at least three miles. The rosary was said every evening in her home.

Mary's cause of death was congestive cardiac failure, auricular fibrillation. She is buried in the Kilbreedy cemetery near Martinstown, Co. Limerick.

Children of DAVID MOLONEY and MARY TREACY are:

- i. PATRICK JOSEPH⁴ MALONEY, b. August 05, 1900, Ballinanima, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, Ireland¹⁷; d. October 20, 1961, Mother Cabrini Hospital, New York, New York¹⁸; m. CATHERINE GERAGHTY, New York, New York; b. June 26, 1895, Ireland¹⁹; d. June 1972, New York, New York.

Notes for PATRICK JOSEPH MALONEY:

Patrick, who was called Paddy in Ireland, apparently emigrated to the US in 1929. Patrick's death certificate states he was a resident of the City of New York for 32 years. His occupation is listed as shipping clerk, at W.J. Sloane, a home furnishings store at 5th Avenue and 47th Street in NYC, where his brother Thomas also worked.

The death certificate also states that Patrick was citizen of the U.S., and that he was not a veteran.

Patrick and his wife, Catherine Geraghty, are buried in the Gate of Heaven Cemetery in Hawthorne, Westchester County, New York, Section 44, Plot 453, Grave #5.

Mary Moloney McGee has a story about Paddy, which she heard from her dad, David. About 1920, a Black and Tan squad arrived at the cottage in Ballinanima in the nighttime and ordered everyone out to the road. They were about to ransack the house when another Black and Tan officer arrived. He told the thugs to leave the family alone, that the woman (Mary "Nanan" Treacy Moloney) had been recently widowed. This was a very good thing-- Paddy had the membership book for the local IRA unit hidden in the house!

Limerick, Ireland³⁷, and died February 08, 1971 in New York, New York³⁸. He married WILLIAMINA GALLAGHER October 17, 1936 in St. Rose of Lima Church, New York, New York³⁹. She was born July 26, 1910 in Greenock, Scotland⁴⁰, and died February 22, 1978 in New York, New York⁴¹.

Notes for THOMAS JOSEPH MALONEY:

Why the spelling of the name was changed in America is not known, although in the USA, "Maloney" is the most common spelling of the name.

Tom was reluctant to leave Ireland. However, the family economic situation after his father's death was bleak, employment opportunities were extremely limited and relatives in America (his mother's family, the Tracys) had generously provided a ticket. It is said that his brother Ned grieved for a week after Tom left.

At some point after 1932, someone altered Tom's baptismal certificate (probably Tom!) to change a "5" into an "8", making the year of his birth 1908. Most of Tom's American records reflect the inaccurate birth year. Whatever advantage might have been gained from this adjustment may have not been worth it, because Tom might not have been drafted into the U.S. Army in 1943 if he was officially 38 and not 35 years old. His spouse Mina apparently did not know his true age, because his death certificate, for which she provided the information, lists his year of birth as 1908.

Tom was 5 feet, 7 inches tall, weighed 153 pounds (almost 11 stones), had blue eyes and red hair (sometimes listed on documents as dark brown).

He completed school through the 8th grade in Ireland.

He traveled to New York City on the "Baltic," a ship of the White Star Line which sailed from Cobh, Co. Cork. Also on the ship were Bridie McGrath, Bridie Landers, Ann Sheely and Dan Corkery. The group left Kilfinane on 13 May and arrived in NY on 21 May 1928.

Tom began working in 1928 as a stock clerk (and later as a carpet salesman) for the W & J Sloane department store on Fifth Avenue and 47th Street in NYC, where his brother Pat also worked. He also worked as a security guard.

He served in the New York National Guard from 5 March 1929 to 5 March 1932 (the National Guard records have the correct age). The enlistment station was at 120 West 62nd Street. Ironically, the Maloney family later lived in the Amsterdam Houses project from 1948-1954 at 229 West 62nd Street, just a block away. The housing project was built after World War II.

In 1938 he took a diesel engine course at the Hemphill School in Long Island City, NY.

He was drafted into the U.S. Army (Serial No. 32814626) on 24 February 1943 and was discharged on 2 December 1945. His home address at time of entry was 21-51 27th Street, Astoria, Queens. He served in Europe from 20 December 1943 to 26 November 1945, although where he served is not known (Army records from this period were lost in a fire in St. Louis, MO, about 1971). Although he is listed as a topographic draftsman, his discharge papers list his organization as the 185th General Hospital. His highest rank was Technician 5th Grade.

Tom had a problem with drink, which led to a legal separation from Mina in 1957, and later an estrangement from his family.

Tom's cause of death was cirrhosis. With fellow veterans, including his uncle John Joseph Tracy, he is buried in Long Island National Cemetery, Farmingdale, NY (Section 2P, Grave No. 527).

Notes for WILLIAMINA GALLAGHER:

Williamina, nicknamed "Mina," was baptized in St. Lawrence RC Church, Greenock, Scotland, on 31 July 1910. Her paternal grandparents were from Glenties, Co. Donegal, and her maternal grandfather, John Keenan, was from Bangor, Co. Down. Her maternal grandmother, Annie Burns, was born in Co. Armagh, Ireland, but the exact location has not yet been found.

She lived in Moffat Street and Hill Street in Greenock, and attended St. Lawrence School.

Mina arrived in lower Manhattan on board the "Cameronia" on May 7, 1929, with her sister Annie and friends Mary Rooney and Margaret Reed Gillespie. She had to wait on the ship all day until a priest "claimed" her and Annie. Her mother, Sarah Jane Keenan Gallagher, thought all the Scots met every ship that came in and did not tell Mary, who had emigrated a year earlier, what day they would arrive. The helpful priest called Mary, who recruited a boyfriend with a car to pick them up. Mina wanted to stay on the ship and go back to Scotland. She said she needed a "good cup of tea."

Mina was 5 ft, 3 inches tall and weighed 115 pounds. She had black hair.

She became a citizen of the U.S. on 18 December 1939.

Her pregnancy with her son Thomas (born 25 February 1944) was a surprise because a doctor had told her she could not have children.

She worked as a domestic, cleaned airplanes for American Airlines at LaGuardia Airport, and worked in a school cafeteria. For many years she worked at the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in NYC as a payroll clerk, retiring in 1975 at the age of 65.

After her death from cancer of the liver, Mina was buried 24 February 1978 in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Hawthorne, NY, Section 38, Plot 408, Grave 7, under the name "Mina Maloney Layburn". In the same plot are her sister, Mary Shearer Reed, and Mary's first husband, William Shearer. (Mina married Harold Layburn in 1975)

Notes for THOMAS MOLONEY:

From the eulogy for Tom:

"Kilmallock's boys, Kilmallock's sons, I'll sing your praises high,
As you went forth from the Balbec town, with might and main to try.
And to prove that you're the champions still,
Where the grand old Lubagh flows.

"It is an impossible task for me today to do justice to the many achievements and memories that people have of our good friend Tom Moloney. Down the years, the Kilmallock club have reached the highest pinnacle of success and also have tasted the bitter moments of defeat. The club survives because of the loyalty and affection of its many supporters but it succeeds because of the inspiration and dedication of a few. One such man who stood above the rest was Tom. In trying to encapsule Tom's contribution to Kilmallock G.A.A. affairs, I'm afraid it would be well nigh impossible. Suffice it to say that he dedicated himself totally and unselfishly to G.A.A. affairs in Kilmallock, where he left no stone unturned to advance the cause of his club and the town he loved so well. Tom served this club with distinction in a wide and varied capacity -- as a player -- committee member --- member of the Fields committee and trustee -- mentor and selector -- motivator -- born na nOg -- treasurer, chairman, and President of his beloved club. Indeed, he was treasurer of the club in 1956 when Kilmallock won the Junior Hurling Championship and Treasurer also in 1960 when the club won its first Senior Hurling Title. During the three in a row of Senior Hurling Titles from 1973-75 he was both chairman of the club and a selector for those teams.

"For me as a young boy growing up in the town, my fondest memories were of the nights spent in Tom's tailor shop at the cross in Kilmallock. I was enthralled as I listened to the stories from Tom's lips and the many characters who visited the shop over the years. The tailor shop was the meeting room of the club in the '50's, '60's and '70's where the players of different generations mixed with the officers and supporters of the club. Tom, with his devoted wife, Maura, by his side, stayed open into the small hours where hurling and football, politics and politicians were discussed with passion, horses were chosen and many a Kilmallock team selected. Tom and Maura's time spent in Belfast and Monaghan were also recalled and when all that was done, then the cards were produced for the nightly game of 45.

If the shop was the meeting room, then Tom's front window was the information centre of the club. Team lists and selections were displayed here and one of the great thrills of the time for Kilmallock players was checking the team lists to see if they had been chosen to play. If Tom had a soft spot for any team, then it was the successful

Junior team of 1956, which lead to many more successes for the club.

"Tom was a great talker who enjoyed the company and friendship of people, but one of his greatest qualities was that he listened. He listened to the problems of the players, young and old, of the officers, of the committee men and selectors. Then the cigarette or pipe would come out of the mouth -- he would lean across the counter and, when Tom spoke, we all listened.

"There was only one way to do things and that was Tom's way. It was the right way because he was always aware of treating people equally and with respect and making sure that every solution was fair to everyone. Tom was also a great spectator and fan of many sports but his greatest love, of course, was for the games of hurling and football. On the sideline he played every ball, was always annoyed when the ball was sent wide at the near post, and always wanted the ball played quickly.

"Tom "was" and always "will be" an institution in Kilmallock. He took great pride and joy in the achievements of his children and grandchildren, and to his daughters Patricia and Geraldine and sons T.J. and Jim, I would like on behalf of the club to offer our sincerest sympathy. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him and we all have our own special memories of him.

"Goodbye, Tom.

"Go ndeanai Dia Troicair ar a anam dilis."
