

Death of Mrs. Mary Treacy, Aglish

REGRETTED PASSING OF A POPULAR LADY

(From Our Cappoquin Correspondent.)

Very few deaths in the Aglish district within recent years have caused such a genuine feeling of sorrow and regret as that of Mrs. Mary Treacy, which occurred at her residence, Main Street, Aglish after a comparatively brief illness on last Saturday evening.

Deceased was a member of the well-known Murray family, Tourin, Cappoquin, and was relict of the late Mr. William Treacy, brother of Mr. Redmond Treacy P.C., Baker and General Merchant, Villierstown; Mr. Declan Treacy, Dublin, do; and Rev. Brother Benignus Treacy, O.S.A., Dublin, who was well and popularly known as a brilliant teacher on the staff of the Augustinian College, Dungarvan, many years ago.

Since the death of her esteemed and enterprising husband several years ago, the late Mrs. Treacy, ably assisted by her respected son and daughter, had carried on a most successful business as Publican and Farmer in Aglish, where her kind and genial personality, and her charming and generous disposition, had made her one of the most popular and best-loved ladies in the district. Although her health had not been very robust for some time previously, it was only within the past few weeks that her condition had begun to cause any anxiety to her family, but despite their tender care, and the best spiritual and medical attention, the end came peacefully on Saturday evening after she had received the last rites of the Catholic Church from Rev. D. Power, C.C., Aglish, who had been unremitting in his spiritual attention to the end.

The unexpected news of her death caused a feeling of intense sadness and gloom amongst all classes of the people of Aglish, where she had so justly enjoyed the esteem and affection of all for many years, and evidence of the widespread sorrow felt over a wide area was provided on the occasion of the removal of her remains on Sunday evening from her late residence to Aglish Catholic Church at 6 o'clock, when the entire populace of Aglish, Villierstown, Dromore, Cooneen, Tinniscart, Clashmore, Tourin, Cappoquin, and other distant parts, gathered in a fitting mark of respect to the memory of such a highly-esteemed and deeply regretted lady.

The coffin was received at the Church by Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aglish, and Rev. D. Power, C.C., do, and after a beautiful Masses for the repose of her soul on Monday morning the funeral started later in the day for St. Declan's cemetery, Dromore, Cappoquin, the family burial-place of the Murrays, where the interment took place.

As the funeral passed through Cappoquin it proved to be one of the largest, most representative and respectable seen for a long time, and there were signs of deep regret on all sides over the death of a lady who had been so popular in Cappoquin, her native parish.

The sad cortege was headed by Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aglish, Rev. D. Power, C.C., do, Rev. Fr. Doyle, C.C., Dungarvan, and Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin, the last prayers at the graveside being recited by Father Gleeson assisted by all the above-named clergymen.

The chief mourners included: Michael Treacy (son); Miss May Treacy (daughter); Miss Elizabeth Murray, Tourin, and Mrs. B. Ronayne, Dromore, (sisters); Daniel and Michael Murray, Tourin (brothers); Mrs. E. Fleming, Grange; Miss C. Fleming, do; Daniel and Michael Murray (Jr.) do; and Denis and Thomas Murray, do; (nephews); the Misses Lola and Betty Murray, do; Miss Betty Ronayne, Dromore; Mrs. M. Daly, Ferrymore; Mrs. D. O'Sullivan, do; Miss Chris. Whelan, do; (nieces); Mrs. M. Murray, Tourin, and Mrs. M. Murray, do; (sisters-in-law); Rev. Brother Benignus Treacy, O.S.A., Dublin; Redmond Treacy, P.C., Villierstown; Declan Treacy, do; (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Redmond Treacy, Villierstown; Mrs. Declan Treacy, do; Jack Treacy, do; Superintendent J. J. Moore, G.S. Ferrymore; Miss M. Moore Villierstown; Miss Spillane Rathfriland; Mrs. M. C. Power, Dungarvan; O'Donnell family;

THE HOUSE that STOOD AMONG THE TREES

One Summer evening they saw the house. It made their dreams at once tangible. This was where it was all to happen. It became the setting for their new endeavours.

They were thankful for the house. Thankful for the parental forethought that enabled them to buy it. When you think of your child don't think of the present only, but plan for the future also.

A Children's Deferred Assurance Policy will provide your child with a start in life. The annual payments can be so small as to be barely noticed. At 21 the option is offered of a cash payment, or the continuance of the Policy as a Life or an Endowment Policy. For further particulars apply to—

THE IRISH ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED

Chief Office: Hammer Buildings, Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin, C 8

J. LOGAN (Supt.), 108 THE QUAY, WATERFORD

Tourin; Ducey family, Ballinacorney; and Mrs. Ryan, Aglish; Terence and Mrs. O'Brien, do; Bransfield family, Geesh; Cotter family, Aglish; Hallahan family, do; Patrick and Mrs. O'Brien, family, Post Office, do; Corbet family, Deerpark; Fives family, Tourin; Wm and Mrs. Hayes, Clashmore; Mrs. Connors, do; Jack and Mrs. Kenneally, Aglish; Walter Terry, Ballyculane, Clashmore; James and Mrs. Colender and family, Tourin; Sweeney family, do; Tim and Miss Kathleen Flynn, Cappoquin, etc. (cousins, relatives and immediate friends).

Wreaths and Mass cards were sent as follows—

Michael and May, (children); Redmond and Mrs. Treacy, family; Declan and Mrs. Treacy, Maurice Mary and family, Ferrymore; Ronayne family, Dromore; Supp and Mrs. Moore, and family, Ferrymore; Spillane family, Rathfriland; Ferrymore, Michael and Mrs. Murray and family; Tourin; Tierney family, Dublin; Denis and Peggy and family, Ferrymore; Cotter family, Tinniscart; Mrs. Cronin, Dungarvan; Tourin; Burling and football club; Thomas and Mrs. Ryan, Aglish, etc., etc.

Aglish Hunt Club

Feb 28th—Piltown Cross.—The usual covert around Piltown were not drawn and hounds were jogged off to the Slate Quarries. The presence of too many foxes handicapped hounds and huntsmen a great deal. Hounds were not long however about forcing one into the open. He took them at a moderate pace in the direction of Ardmore, circling to the right, he came to a point just short of Clashmore, Church where he again swung right and eventually found refuge in the Slate Quarries Point 3 miles, 31 as hounds ran heavy low-lying clouds hampered sent a great deal.

March 6th—Kereen.—

"Give me the fox that holds his point

Though fools and 'late combine,

Give me the hounds that follow him

With none upon the line

Crough na-Grann was blank and hounds moved on to Quinn's

Begs, the large field (amongst which we were glad to see two newcomers from Dungarvan) fox broke in the direction of Cooneen. The field very wrongly hallooed frantically, and the Master lifted hounds thinking it was a different fox to find when they reached Dromore it was the same one.

Hounds joined chase again at the far corner of the Cooneen. The field remained stationary and when they saw hounds hunting again they were three-quarters of a mile away from them. Everybody except the Master and first Whipper-in was lost. Points made during the run were the Cooneen, Ballingown, Moloney's Cross, Crough-na-Grann, Bleach and Quinn's Bogs, where hounds were whipped off. From Dromore, where chase was joined, it would have been about 31 miles very fast and hounds were unlikely to find the same fox there and he clung to his usual line despite everything.

Only two and a half couple of hounds got away on their fox, and all were up at the finish. They only gave tongue intermittently, so followers were completely lost. We had only a mere 61 couple out as the others are kennelled for breeding purposes, etc. Some hounds got left in Quinn's Bogs while 11 couple got on to a second fox, while they were unattended in Dromore. So the day was most unfortunate. Hounds did not try again as most of the followers were going to either the Knocknaree Harriers dance, or the Stradbally Harriers dance. We all learned with regret at the meet of "Rambler's" death. He was our best doghound and the best-looking one, too.

Those mounted at the above meets were—Mr. M. Ducey, M.H. Mr. Walter Terry, and Mr. R. O'Keefe, Whippers-in; Miss Hynes, Miss Ita Flynn, Miss Kathleen Cotter, Mr. W. Tobin, Quarter, Master E. Walsh, do, Mr. M. Terry, Curraheen House; Mr. James Curran, Cappoquin; Master M. O'Connor, do; Mr. J. Power, Dungarvan; Mr. Jack Lynch, do; Mr. S. Quenly, do; Mr. Vincent Morrissey, do; Mr. Anthony Lawn, do; Master T. Fenton, M.H. O'Brien, Kereen; Mr. R. Fitzgerald, Clonsilla; Mr. N. Fitzgerald, do; Mr. C. Cunningham, do; Mr. W. Healy, do; Master B. Moloney, Geesh; Master P. Foley, do; Mr. J. P.

LISMORE COURT

BICYCLE THIEF SENT TO JAIL

EJECTMENT CASE

(Before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.)
The Lismore Estates Co. sought an ejectment order against Teresa Whelan, Main St., Lismore, who owed £7 17s arrears of rent.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, for complainant.
Mr. Gerald Fitzgerald, Estate Agent having proved the debt, a settlement was arrived at on defendant undertaking to regularly pay 1/8 rent, plus 5/- per week of the debt, until the entire amount has been paid up.

Mr. C. Fitzgerald, solr., Fermoy, had a civil bill against William O'Brien formerly of South Mall, Lismore, for £20 due for rent. Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for complainant, but there was no appearance for defendant and a decree for the amount was granted with costs.

Bridget Gambon, Whitechurch, sought an ejectment decree against Michael Foley, do, for possession of a house for which he owed £4 19s arrears, the rent being 3/- weekly.

Thos. Cashman, having proved service of the Notice to Quit, a decree for possession was granted.

An Unlighted Car

Guard P. Houlahan, Lismore, summoned Patrick Morrissey, for using an unlighted car and a fine of 5/- was imposed.

Guard P. Houlahan, Lismore, summoned two young ladies from Cappoquin for using unlighted bicycles when coming from the Pictoria in Lismore, and they were fined 3/- each.

Guard P. Houlahan, Lismore, for a similar offence. Fined 2/6.

Transfer of Licence

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, applied on behalf of Mrs. Murphy, for a transfer of the licence held by Patrick Joseph Murphy in Ballyduff, and there being no objection by the authorities, the transfer was granted.

Gutting Trees Without A Permit

The Minister for Lands, prosecuted Richard Tanner, Belvedere, Tallow, for cutting a number of ash trees on his land in October and November without having obtained the necessary permit from the Minister or the Guards.

Dr. Counihan, State Solr., appeared for the Minister, and Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, defended.

Evidence of the alleged offence having been given by Sgt. O'Shea, Tallow.

Mr. Carroll submitted that no offence had been committed as the only timber cut by Mr. Tanner was a number of "Suckers" which had grown from the stumps of ash trees which had been previously cut, and as these were not 10 years old, they did not come under the provisions of the Act, so he asked for a dismissal.

Mr. Carroll then produced some blocks from the "Suckers" cut in proof of his contention, and after hearing the evidence of the defendant and his workmen, Mr. Attorney Grey, in support of Mr. Carroll's statement, the Justice said he could not go beyond the evidence of the defendant, and he accordingly dismissed the case.

The Minister for Lands prosecuted Patrick Keane, Balykerry, for cutting ash trees on his land, and his sons, for a similar offence.

Sgt. Wm. Breen, Cappagh, having proved the offence, one of defendant's sons explained the circumstances and the Justice dismissed the case under the Probation of Offenders Act, but ordered defendant to pay 6/- expenses.

Same v. John Kiely, Cappagh, for a similar offence.

Sgt. Breen, Cappagh, stated that defendant had a farm of 135 acres and in this case 10 trees had been cut by him all over ten years old without any permit.

Defendant was fined £1 and ordered to pay 10/- expenses, and costs.

Alleged Milling Offence

The Minister for Supplies prosecuted Mr. P. A. Usher, owner of a Grinding Mill at Cappagh for illegally grinding wheat and manufacturing it into food for animals contrary to an Emergency Powers Order.

Dr. Counihan, State Solr., appeared for the Minister, and Mr. Cashman, Rockfield House, Mr. McCarthy, Ballyduff, Master Curran, Mr. S. Quenly, etc. etc. PS—1 should have said that the second hunt I reported last issue was 10 to 11 miles. I hope you will forgive me if I forget your name its quite impossible to get them all and there are never more than a few missing.

L.H.R.—T.

T. C. Williams, solr., Dungarvan, defended.

Having heard the evidence of an Inspector from the Department of Supplies, who was closely cross-examined by Mr. Williams, and also the latter's explanation of the circumstances, the Justice dismissed the case on this point.

Bicycle Thief Sent to Jail

Supt. P. J. Doyle, Lismore, charged a middle-aged man named William Carroll residing at Corriganogue, a few miles from Lismore with the larceny of a lady's bicycle, the property of Miss Ende, Whelan, A.L.C.M., Music Teacher, Mayfield, Lismore.

Captain J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for the defendant and made a strong plea for leniency, as this unfortunate man had to walk 13 miles to his work each day.

The Supt. pressed for a heavy penalty, as the defendant had three bicycles in his possession when arrested and this was not the first instance of stealing one in his case.

The Justice said he had no sympathy whatever with bicycle thieves and he sent the defendant to two calendar months' imprisonment in Limerick Jail.

Assault With A Hammer

Patrick Fitzgibbon, aged 80 years, Glangarra, Lismore, summoned Michael Carney, for assaulting him by striking him with a hammer on the head on the 27th November.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for complainant, and Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, defended.

Complainant in reply to Mr. Carroll described how Carney came to his door and took a hammer from his pocket with which he struck him on the head.

In cross-examination by Mr. Farrell he denied striking Carney with a sweeping brush on the occasion.

Sgt. Ballantine, Lismore, stated that Fitzgibbon had made a complaint to him after the assault and showed him a wound which he stated had been inflicted by Carney with a hammer.

Both solicitors having addressed the Court, the Justice said he had no doubt that Carney had taken the hammer from his pocket and struck this old man with it, and he now fined him 20/-, and ordered him to pay 5/- costs, and severely cautioned him as regards his future behaviour towards Fitzgibbon.

Larceny of Rabbits

Edward Barry, Deerpark, Lismore, was charged by Supt. P. J. Doyle, Lismore, with the larceny of a number of rabbits from a certain establishment in the town.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for defendant.

Having heard the evidence and also Mr. Farrell's plea for leniency, the Justice let defendant off under the P.O.A. as there had been no similar charge previously against him.

Action Over A Farm Debt

The Commissioner of Public Works sued Patrick Keane Balykerry and his sons, James and John Keane for the sum of £13 due by them on money advanced in May 1941.

Dr. Counihan, State Solr., appeared for the complainant, and stated that the defendant had a farm of 135 acres, but he and his sons appeared to be in rather poor circumstances.

One of the sons now appeared and asked for time to pay and stated that he would be able to pay £6 in one sum off the debt after the harvest in Oct., and £1 per month afterwards until the entire debt had been paid up.

Dr. Counihan agreed to these terms, and the Justice made an order accordingly and the defendant was ordered to pay £2 costs.

A Serious Charge

At the end of the ordinary cases, the Court was cleared of the general public while depositions were taken in Garraun in a case in which a young lad from Ballinacorney district was charged with a serious offence against a young girl under 17 years of age residing in the Knockalra district.

Depositions were made by the girl's mother, her former employer, Sergeant Browne, Cappoquin, who had arrested the defendant, after which defendant was returned for trial to the Criminal Court in Waterford but was admitted to bail in the sum of £20, which was immediately forthcoming after which he was released from custody.

Printed and Published by the Proprietors at their Office and Works, 78, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan.